Frequently Asked Questions

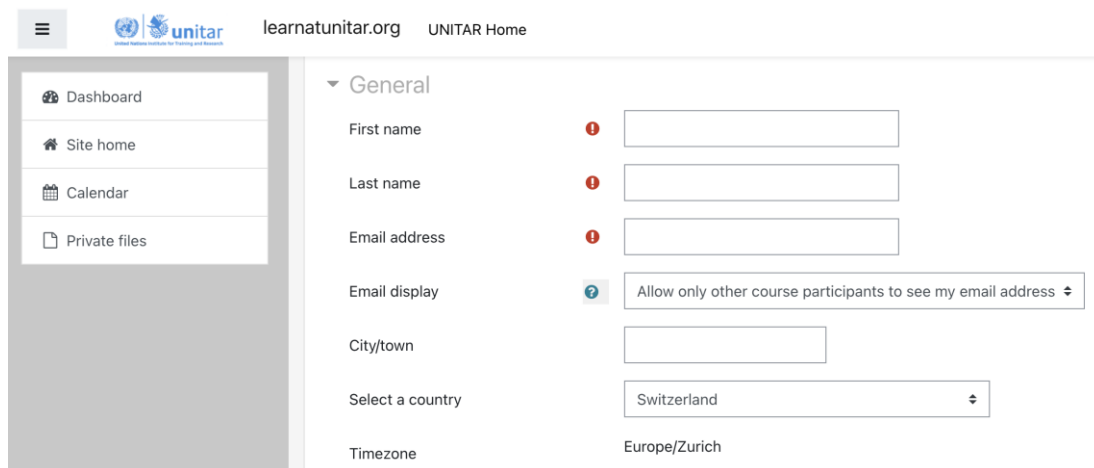

I have registered for the course, but I don't have access. What should I do?

Registration is the first thing you do when you want to take a Chemicals and Waste course. After registering, you receive an email with a link to this document. However, in order to gain access to the course, you need to self-enrol as a student. Please follow the guide from step 3 for more information.

Where is the "Site home" button?

If the sidebar shown in step 3 is not visible on your screen, click on the button with the three horizontal lines  in the top left corner to make it appear so that you can find the Site home option and continue with the guide.

I'm stuck on this page. How can I leave and go to my course?

This is the Edit profile page. If you are stuck here, it is most likely because this is the first course you have registered for. You need to complete your profile with your personal information and then click on Update profile at the bottom. Afterwards, follow the guide from step 3.
